Ontario Planners: Vision • Leadership • Great Communities

OPPI's Healthy Communities, Sustainable Communities initiative and the corresponding release of PLANNING BY DESIGN: a healthy communities handbook have brought much focus to planning for healthy, walkable communities, however, there is more to be done. The symposium will examine the many issues associated with food and how this relates to the planning profession and other key stakeholders interested in fostering healthy and sustainable communities.

This two-day event will address the issues from both an urban and rural planning perspective. Speakers come from a wide variety of backgrounds who are knowledgeable about planning for food. There is also a second day of intensive training workshops that will focus on the symposium topic. These sessions will allow attendees to further explore issues and actively participate in discussions.

THE ONTARIO PROFESSIONAL PLANNERS INSTITUTE (OPPI)

The Ontario Professional Planners Institute (OPPI) is the recognized voice of the province's planning profession. Our more than 3,000 members are employed by governments, private industry, agencies, and academic institutions. Practicing planners work in a wide variety of fields including urban and rural community development, urban design, environment, transportation, health and social services, housing, and economic development. Our members are committed to improving the quality of Ontario's environments and communities.

WHO WILL PARTICIPATE?

Over 300 planning professionals and participants are expected to attend this year. The Symposium attracts a wide range of suppliers, service providers, government agencies, educators and private sector planning and development consultants.

SPONSOR RECOGNITION

Several networking functions within the program will allow you the opportunity to personally deliver your message to delegates. Higher sponsorship levels include Symposium registrations and a display table in the foyer area. In addition, the earlier you sign up as a sponsor, the more recognition you will receive through Symposium marketing, the OPPI web site and the e-newsletter sent to all members.
